

Curriculum Vitae Sabine Kroissenbrunner

Born 14th January 1969, Graz/ Austria

2021-2024: Deputy Head of Mission of the Austrian Embassy in Cairo and Director of the Austrian Cultural Forum

2015-2021: Deputy Head of Mission, Austrian Embassy in Belgrade, Serbia

2011-2015: Deputy Head of Mission, Austrian Embassy in Ankara, Turkey

2007 - 2011: Head of the Task Force for Dialogue of Cultures and Religions

2004-2007: Head of Press Department of the Austrian Embassy in Berlin, Germany

Since 2000: Diplomat in the Federal Ministry for European and International Affairs

1995 – 2000: Federal Chancellery, General Directorate for EU Affairs

1995-96: Advisor on EU affairs to the Austrian Minister for Women's Affairs, Federal Chancellery

Studies in political science at the University of Vienna (Mag.^a phil.), Bosphorus University, Istanbul and at the School of Oriental and African Studies, London (MSc in Politics of Asia and Africa).

Studies in theology and comparative religious studies.

Training and workshops in Creative Writing and Integrative Therapy (Book and Poetry Therapy).

Researcher and consultant for the Vienna Integration Fund, the Institute for Conflict Research, Vienna, the Bruno Kreisky Archives and the Bruno Kreisky Forum for International Dialogue, Vienna et al. Research and mediation projects.

Founder and Director of ADAM – Academy for Dialogue and Mediation
<https://www.akademie-adam.at/> fostering education/ training and cooperation between Austria, Europe and the Orient.

Publications in academic research and literature, in particular on topics related to religion, Islam and migration/ integration.

Fluent in German, English, French and Turkish. Beginner level in Arabic.